Figure 2: Key review, development, consultation, endorsement and approval steps, responsibilities and outcomes involved in the comprehensive review of internally-accredited courses at Victoria University QIP data provided as Consult with per L&T Quality Management Advisory Steps Consult with partners, Framework, Dean partners. and Provost priorities profession, profession, employers etc employers etc QIP and QIP / CCLT Consults CCLT assists with Consults CCLT with Dean's assist with with Dean's drafting course advise on Advisory data Advisory review course Committee analysis Committee submission groupings Provost approves College annual course monitoring Discipline team Course Review report Discipline Group Management Steps Provost schedules develops CCR course Panel conducted, comprehensive conducts selfsubmission develops course review of courses review of courses recommendations Dean endorses Dean initiates course review process in course review College report Academic Governance Steps Academic Board Courses Committee endorses Course Review Report, schedules reaccreditation to commence within 12 months