Part B - Procedures

(5) Victoria University situates teacher development within a "whole of career" approach that includes early induction, credentialed courses, and ongoing professional development activities, both formal and informal.

(6) Where possible, the professional development of academic staff involves quality focused and contextualised learning, relevant to the needs of participants in their day to day teaching practice.

(7) Participation in the University's program of professional development activities for academic staff, including initial induction sessions and support, is required, encouraged and supported by the University and its Colleges and Partnerships (TNE) where VU Block Model is delivered.

(8) All offers of employment to prospective HE academic staff (ongoing, fixed term, or casual/sessional) must include a contractual requirement for the staff member to register into the VU Block Model Academic Induction Program.

(9) All offers of employment to prospective HE academic staff (ongoing) must include a requirement for the staff member to enrol in the Graduate Certificate of Block Teaching.

(10) All offers of employment to prospective academic staff (contract) who are employed for 3 years or greater must include a contractual requirement for the staff member to enrol in the Graduate Certificate of Block Teaching.

Part C - Graduate Certificate

(11) All commencing Victoria University HE academic staff with ongoing or a minimum of 3 years contract are required to satisfactorily complete the Graduate Certificate in Block Teaching within the first three years of their employment.

(12) Satisfactory completion of the Graduate Certificate is a requirement of the probationary period, excepting as described in Exemptions from the Graduate Certificate in Block Teaching below.

(13) The Graduate Certificate in Block Teaching will be provided free of course and amenities fees to all ongoing academic staff. Sessional, Fixed Term or external participants can apply for CSP or AFP enrolment.

(14) Ongoing Academic staff who leave the University's employ prior to completion of the Graduate Certificate will need to apply for CSP or AFP enrolment to complete the course.

(15) Whilst this procedure does not apply to VE teaching staff, except for VE teaching staff who deliver HE Diplomas in VU Block Model, if VE teaching staff wish to enrol in the Graduate Certificate in Block Teaching they can with the same conditions that apply to HE academic staff.
