- e. Review the expense claim to ensure the validity and completeness of expense items (see below).
- f. Submit the Expense Claim to the Approving Officer (preferably only one each month and within the first week of the following month).

Provide Expense Item Supporting Documentation

(21) All transactions charged to the credit card must be fully substantiated. There are no materiality thresholds in relation to this requirement. Cardholders must provide:

- a. The supplier's name and Australian Business Number.
- b. The words "Tax Invoice".
- c. Name and address of the University or the University's ABN (for purchases over $1,000).
- d. Date of issue.
- e. Brief description of supplied items.
- f. Quantity or volume.
- g. Either the total amount payable or a statement that the amount includes GST or the amount charged for the supply, the amount of GST and the total amount payable.

(22) At the time of incurring the expense, photograph the invoice/receipt, or as soon as possible after that, scan the invoice/receipt.

(23) Attach the photograph or scanned copy to the expense item in the monthly expense claim.

(24) Retain the hard copy original receipt until the expense has been approved within Concur.

(25) In exceptional circumstances where an invoice or receipt under $82.50 (including GST) is unable to be obtained, complete a CBA Declaration of Missing Tax Invoice/Receipt Form, and if an invoice or receipt is over $82.50 (excluding GST) is unable to be obtained complete Statutory Declaration. Scan and attach it to the expense item in place of the missing invoice/receipt.

Review Credit Card Transactions

(26) Ensure each transaction in the monthly Expense Claim was incurred for University business purposes (see Purchasing \(Credit\) Cards Policy, Part B).

(27) If an expense is reimbursable to the University, refer to clauses (18)-(22) above.

(28) Follow up discrepancies/disputes in credit card transactions immediately with the financial institution by completing the Dispute Form and email to IBGOVT@cba.com.au and cc on the email or notify the Finance Expense Management Administrator.

(29) Ensure goods or services paid for using the credit card were actually delivered or will be delivered.

(30) Where goods or services were not delivered or not provided in accordance with original expectations, ensure a reversal of the expense is processed by the provider as soon as possible.

(31) Ensure photographic or scanned evidence of original supporting documentation for each transaction is electronically attached to the expense item within the expense claim.

(32) Retain the hard copy original receipt until the expense has been approved within Concur.

(33) Forward the completed expense claim to the Approving Officer within five days after the month-end close.

(34) Monitor the submitted monthly Expense Claim to ensure the Approving Officer reviews and processes the claim within five days of submitting.

Advise Changes in Particulars

(35) Advise the Finance Expense Management Administrator of any change in your details, e.g. name, contact details, campus base, cost centre, financial authorisation level, Approving Officer, etc.

(36) Where a change in position occurs, request the new Approving Officer to assess and confirm with the Finance Expense Management Administrator, the ongoing requirement for the credit card.

Return Credit Card

(37) Cut in half and immediately return the credit card to the Finance Expense Management Administrator:

- a. 10 days before ceasing employment with the University,
- b. Immediately when the Responsible Officer or Approving Officer requests the return of the credit card, or
- c. Immediately when the credit card has been cancelled.

Destroy expired cards

(38) Expired cards should be cut in half and disposed of securely within the business unit. They do not need to be returned to the Finance Expense Management Administrator.

Part D - Approving Officer Procedures and Responsibilities

Review of Credit Card Transactions

(39) When a cardholder submits an expense claim, an electronic Concur system message will be sent advising that an expense claim awaits approval. If an expense claim remains unapproved, on the 10th day, it will be escalating to the Approver's Line Manager.

(40) An Approving Officer will review each expense item and ensure adequate and appropriate documentation is attached.

(41) Where an expense appears not to have been incurred for legitimate University business purposes, the Approving Officer will reject the expense item and seek further information from the cardholder.

(42) Where an expense claim contains legitimate expense items, the Approving Officer will approve the legitimate expense claim items within five days of the cardholder submitting the claim.

Annual Review of Credit Cards

(43) The Finance Expense Management Administrator will initiate a review of the University's credit cards every year, usually by August of each year. The Finance Expense Management Administrator will write to all Approving Officers, providing details of cardholders who submit claims to them.

(44) Approving Officers will:

- a. Review the cardholder details, credit limits and requirements for the cardholder to retain their credit card.
- b. Return the Annual Credit Card Holder Confirmation to the Finance Expense Management Administrator within two weeks advising any changes or if the credit card is to be retained by the cardholder as is.

Part E - Finance Expense Management Administrator Procedures and Responsibilities

New Credit Card Applications

(45) The Finance Expenses Management Administrator will:

- a. Check the application to ensure all the required information has been completed correctly.
- b. Submit the completed and approved CBA Corporate cardholder Request to the Commonwealth Bank.

- (58) Advise the Finance Expense Management Administrator of any Policy breaches requiring suspension or cancellation of a credit card.
- (59) Inform the Finance Expense Management Administrator of any changes to cardholder particulars.
- (60) Develop and distribute various credit card expense management reports.
- (61) Initiate an annual review of credit card requirements and make changes as required.

Part F - Responsible Finance Expense Management Administrator Procedures

- (62) Instruct the Finance Expense Management Administrator to issue notices of non-compliance with this Procedure to the relevant cardholder and their Approving Officer (sent via bcc email on behalf of the Responsible Officer).
- (63) Monitor and ensure the effectiveness of this Procedure and the Purchasing \(Credit\) Cards Policy.
- (64) Nominate the Finance Expense Management Administrator.

Part G - Accountability Support

Training Plan

- (65) Cardholders, Expense Delegate and Approvers involved in the use, acquittal or approval of the expenses are advised to undertake Training – Concur Expense Management System, located on the Finance Intranet site.

Compliance Audits

- (66) The Concur system is designed to perform invoice/receipt compliance checks on all-expense items in accordance with the rules and regulations outlined in the Purchasing \(Credit\) Cards Policy and this Procedure to meet the University's statutory obligations.

Part H - Non-compliance: Expense Claim Approvals and Acquittals

- (67) Compliance reviews will be conducted periodically by Finance Services – Financial Compliance Team to assess the level of compliance with this Procedure and the Purchasing \(Credit\) Cards Policy. Non-compliance will be reported to the Responsible Officer to implement the appropriate corrective actions to remedy the audit issues identified.

(68) Where non-compliance occurs, regarding submission and approval of expense claims, reminder notices will be sent via bcc email to the relevant cardholder and their Approving Officer, advising what action will be instigated.

1st Policy Breach Notice

(69) An auto-email reminder notice will be sent from Concur to the cardholder on the 10th day of each month for:

- a. Unassigned overdue card transaction(s) over 30 days old.
- b. Assigned but unsubmitted overdue card transaction(s) for 30 days old.

(70) Email body message will read as per the following:

- a. The Procedure requires that University's Purchasing \(Credit\) Cards Policy & credit card expense claims be submitted and approved within 30 business days following month-end close. According to our records, you have not submitted, or you have unapproved credit card expenditure that is greater than 30 days old and therefore you are non-compliant with University Policy. Please follow up with your line manager for any submitted reports that are still not approved in their profile.

(71) Future non-compliance will result in the suspension of the credit card.

2nd Policy Breach Notice

(72) Where an expense claim has still not been submitted and approved (or rejected) within five (5) business days of the 1st Policy Breach Notice date, a follow-up reminder will be sent to the cardholder and their Approving Officer, requesting the expense claim be submitted and approved (or rejected) within the next five (5) business days from the date of that notice.

3rd Policy Breach Notice - Referral to the Responsible Officer

(73) Any cardholder or Approving Officer who does not respond to the 2nd Reminder Notice will be referred to the Responsible Officer who may apply either of the following conditions:

- a. Grant a further five (5) business days for the expense claim to be submitted and approved (or rejected). If the expense claim is still not acquitted within the extended time frame due to:
 - i. The Cardholder, the credit card will be suspended for one month. If the expense claim is still not acquitted after this period, the credit card will be cancelled.
 - ii. The Approving Officer, the expense claim will be escalated to the Approving Officers manager to review and approve (or reject).

(74) Where the cardholder has a history of non-compliance with this Procedure, the Responsible Officer will immediately suspend the cardholders, credit card. If the expense claim is not acquitted within one month the credit card will be cancelled.

(75) Where a Cardholder has their credit card cancelled for breach of this Procedure they will not be afforded the privilege of a new card in the future.

Cancellation or Suspension of a Credit Card

(76) A credit card may be cancelled or suspended pursuant to clause (74) above. In addition, whereas part of a review process, it is deemed that the level of card usage is insufficient to warrant the holding of a credit card or that the current level of the card limit is excessive, and a credit card may be cancelled or suspended or have its credit limit reduced to an appropriate level.

(77) Where the issue of a credit card to an employee is considered likely to expose the University to unlawful financial loss, the credit card will be cancelled immediately.

(78) Where a cardholder becomes aware they have lost their credit card, they must notify the financial institution credit card provider, by contacting them via the number on the back of the Corporate Card and notify the Finance Expense Management Administration immediately.

(79) Where a credit card has been lost (misplaced, destroyed or stolen), the credit card will be cancelled. Where suspected fraud appears on a credit card, the credit card will be suspended until the matter has been investigated. If fraudulent activity is confirmed the credit card will be cancelled.

Extenuating Circumstances

(80) Where a Cardholder or their Approving Officer believe extenuating circumstances prevent them from finalising an expense claim they must advise the Finance Expense Management Administrator by email immediately stating the circumstances and committing to a date when the expense claim will be finalised.

(81) The Finance Expense Management Administrator will refer the matter to the Responsible Officer who will consider and advise accordingly on a case-by-case basis.

Part I - Non-Compliance: Credit Card Use

(82) Non-compliance with the Purchasing \(Credit\) Cards Policy and this Procedure regarding the approved use and prohibited use of a credit card will result in the following consequences under Appropriate Workplace Behaviour Policy and Financial Code of Conduct Policy:

- a. Services: Where a cardholder uses a University credit card to pay for services which were not provided to undertake business purposes on behalf of the University, the cardholder will reimburse the full cost of those services to the University.
- b. Goods: Where a cardholder uses a University credit card to purchase goods which were not acquired for business purposes on behalf of the University, the cardholder will reimburse the full cost of those goods to the University. The cardholder will be deemed the owner of the goods.
- c. String Arrangement: Where a cardholder uses a University credit card to purchase goods or services under a string arrangement (by instalments) even if for business purposes on behalf of the University, the cardholder's credit card will be cancelled immediately and their financial delegation removed.
- d. Any Other Non-Business Purpose: Where a cardholder uses a University credit card for any other non-business purpose not included in clauses (76) a.-c. above, the employee will reimburse the University immediately. Where the prohibited acquisition was for goods, the goods will be deemed to belong to the cardholder.
