Section 5 - Policy Statement/Regulation

(7) As one of the most culturally diverse education institutions in Australia, and in recognition of this diversity as an asset, VU is committed to being a great University of the 21st century by emphasising:

- a. diversity - by embracing students from diverse countries, cultures and education backgrounds; and
- b. inclusivity - in our students' experience of University and our approach to students' life and education experiences and socioeconomic backgrounds.

(8) VU is committed to:

- a. academic excellence and providing high quality, engaging career-based tertiary education at all levels of vocational and higher education;
- b. strong international collaboration and partnerships with universities and other partners in other countries in learning and teaching, research and translation;
- c. engaging with industry and the community, both locally and internationally to develop cross-cultural capability and foster global citizenship;
- d. enhancing the quality of our students' experience and outcomes, with an emphasis on career preparedness and development, employability and entrepreneurship, and leadership capability for a global context.

(9) The University respects and acknowledges the contribution of overseas students to our University and the broader community.

(10) The University values overseas students for the varied perspectives, insights and experiences they bring to our University community in the area of cultural diversity and internationalisation.

National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018

(11) In accordance with the Education Services for Overseas Students National Code of Practice for Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students 2018, the University will not knowingly enrol an overseas student wishing to transfer from another registered provider's course prior to the overseas student completing six calendar months from commencement of their principal course of study, except where any of the following apply:

- a. the releasing registered provider, or the course in which the overseas student is enrolled, has ceased to be registered;
- b. the releasing registered provider has had a sanction imposed on its registration by the ESOS agency that prevents the overseas student from continuing his or her course at that registered provider;
- c. the releasing registered provider has agreed to the overseas student's release and recorded the date of effect and reason for release in Provider Registration International Students Management System (PRISMS);
- d. any government sponsor of the overseas student considers the change to be in the overseas student's best interests and has provided written support for the change.

(12) When considering a request from an overseas student seeking to transfer, VU is committed to following this Policy and the International Student Transfer Procedure to assess overseas student transfer requests during the restriction period.
