

Risk Management Profile Structure and Responsibilities

The following articulates the levels of risk as they reside across the University and depicts the interrelationships in particular areas of risk. It is critical that there is clear accountabilities and responsibilities of those risks which are shared between different business units

