

Annual Risk Planning and Review Cycle

A consistently applied annual risk planning and review cycle will ensure that risk management is consistently applied throughout the University whilst providing accurate, and clear information at the right level for management, SEG and the CARC. The following articulates the critical risk information to be developed and reported to the CARC on an annual basis

