

Employee Wellbeing - Domestic or Family Violence Support Guidelines

Section 1 - Purpose / Objectives

(1) The University actively supports measures to reduce violence against women, promotes health and safety of staff on campus and recognises that staff will be amongst those affected by situations of domestic/family violence. This guideline outlines the support available to all staff members experiencing domestic/family violence, enabling staff experiencing domestic/family violence to continue to participate in the workplace and maintain their employment. This guideline is supported by the Domestic or Family Violence Leave Procedure but does not form part of the procedure.

(2) Students requiring support or assistance with domestic/family violence issues should contact the University's Counselling Service . In case of emergency, students can contact the Crisis and Emergency Counselling Services or Security .

Section 2 - Scope / Application

(3) This Guideline applies to:

- a. All University staff
- b. Managers/Supervisors, People and Culture staff

(4) The leave provisions of this guideline and the leave procedure do not apply to Students and external contractors.

Section 3 - Definitions

Section 4 - Policy Statement

(6) Nil

Section 5 - Procedures

(7) Employee Wellbeing - Domestic or Family Violence Leave Procedure

Section 6 - Guidelines

(8) The University's Enterprise Agreements and Domestic or Family Violence Leave Procedure identify that staff who are victims of domestic or family violence are entitled to paid or unpaid special leave and may use existing leave entitlements to attend to personal matters arising from domestic or family violence.

(9) Staff experiencing or escaping situations of domestic or family violence may ask for consideration of a range of measures to assist them in addressing their current circumstances while maintaining their employment. These could include:

- a. Access free counselling and crisis support through the Employee Assistance Program \(EAP\)
- b. Seek support from their Manager or Supervisor
- c. Seek support from their relevant People and Culture (P&C) Business Partner
- d. Request flexible work arrangements, through the Employee Wellbeing - Flexible Work Arrangements Procedure
- e. Apply for existing or special paid leave, which is also for managing situations of domestic and family violence, via the HR45 Application for Leave form
- f. Discuss with their Manager/Supervisor working from a different location
- g. Discuss with their Manager/Supervisor University Security escorts/assistance
- h. Discuss with their Manager/Supervisor and P&C Business Partner University IT Security Office assistance

(10) If all paid leave has been exhausted staff members, with the support of their Manager/Supervisor and P&C Business Partner, may apply to the Vice-President, People and Culture for additional leave with or without payment. Managers/Supervisors and any other parties involved must ensure that they deal with a staff member's application for Domestic or Family Violence Leave and/or support with sensitivity.

(11) In instances where the University requests proof of domestic or family violence this can be in the form of a document issued by the police service, a court, a medical practitioner, community or government agency, a counselling professional and/or a statutory declaration from the affected staff member. This information will be treated as any other workplace document in compliance with the University's privacy policy and will be shared only on an individual 'need to know' basis.

Managers and Supervisors

(12) Managers and Supervisors can assist staff experiencing domestic or family violence in the following ways:

- a. Direct staff to this document and other domestic or family violence resources on the University's intranet and online
- b. Provide information to staff members about the University's Employee Assistance Program
- c. Advise staff experiencing domestic or family violence of the services provided by University Security
- d. Seek advice as necessary from their relevant P&C Business Partner
- e. Approve leave in consultation with the Director, Advisory Services or the Vice-President, People and Culture, as appropriate
- f. Seek further support and advice from the Managers Hotline, through the University's EAP

People and Culture

(13) People and Culture can assist staff experiencing domestic or family violence in the following ways:

- a. Direct staff to their appropriate P&C Business Partner, this guideline and other support systems as listed above
- b. P&C Business Partners can provide information to Managers and Supervisors regarding this guideline and other support systems listed above
- c. P&C Business Partners can liaise with ITS Security Office regarding security precautions, such as blocking certain email addresses or changing a work phone number
- d. Approach the Director, Advisory Services and or Vice-President, People and Culture for leave approvals and further assistance, particularly for complex matters
