Part B - Overview

(19) VU offers a wide range of VET Non-Award Courses across many disciplines and fields.

(20) A VET Non-Award course is a course offered and/or developed by the University for educational, personal, or professional development purposes, which does not result in issuing of a VU testamur.

(21) VET Non-Award Courses are based on:

- a. Nationally endorsed training packages and externally accredited courses. VU delivers these courses according to the requirements specified in the relevant nationally endorsed training package or externally accredited curricula; and
- b. Short courses developed by the University which address a specific skill/knowledge upgrade, professional development or leisure activity.

Part C - Categories of VET Non-Award Courses

(22) There are seven (7) distinct categories of VET Non-Award Courses that can be approved. The differences between the categories are based on decisions related to:

- a. Regulatory requirements;
- b. Whether the course is externally accredited;
- c. Government reporting requirements;
- d. Proposed funding sources, and/or
- e. Proposed course outcomes, specifically how the VET Non-Award Course will be assessed.

(23) VET Non-Award Courses may be of varying duration and may be delivered in a variety of modes.

(24) The table below summarises the seven (7) categories of VET Non-Award Courses.

Category	Code	Regulator	State Funding	State Reporting	Assessed	Course Endorsed by:
1. Single/multiple unit/s enrolment in a VET Award Course	VET Award Course code	ASQA	Yes	Yes	Yes	University Courses Committee
2. VCE/VCAL	State code	VRQA	Yes	Yes	Yes	University Courses Committee
3. Accredited short course 'Course in ...'	National code	ASQA	Yes	Yes	Yes	University Courses Committee
4. Nationally accredited skill sets	National code	ASQA	No	Yes	Yes	VET Course Advisory Committee
5. Non-accredited course with accredited units	TNxxx	ASQA	No	Yes	Yes	VET Course Advisory Committee
6. Non-accredited course with non-accredited units (Professional Development)	TQxxx	Not applicable	No	No	Yes	VET Course Advisory Committee
7. Non-accredited course with non-accredited units (Professional Development / Leisure / Hobby)	THxxx	Not applicable	No	No	Yes Assessment equates to attendance	VET Course Advisory Committee

Part D - Notification of Intention to Offer a VET Non-Award Course

(25) New VET Non-Award course:

- a. Delivery Area Manager notifies VET Governance of their intention to offer a New VET Non-Award course.

(26) Replacement VET Non-Award course:

- a. When notification is received via the National Register of VET or the VRQA that a particular training product has been replaced, the Delivery Area Manager of the delivery area must determine if the superseding course will be offered.
- b. Delivery Area Manager to provide intention to offer superseding VET Non-Award Course to VET Governance within one (1) week.
- c. Formal communication with currently enrolled students to occur informing students of the training product being replaced and the relevant transition period within three (3) weeks of intention to offer VET Non-Award course being received.

(27) Senior Coordinator, Governance to assign one of the seven (7) categories of VET Non-Award Courses.

(28) Delivery area to complete quality documentation. This quality documentation must be completed:

- a. Prior to the training product being added to scope of registration, if application to ASQA/VRQA is to be made; or
- b. Prior to internal course approval if application to ASQA/VRQA not necessary.

Glossary Terms and Definitions

"AQF (Australian Qualifications Framework)" - The Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) is the national policy for regulated qualifications in the Australian education and training system. It incorporates the quality assured qualifications from each education and training sector into a single comprehensive national qualifications framework.

"Non-Award Course" - A course of study that does not lead to the issuance of an Award of the University.

"Accredited Courses" - Courses that are accredited by a VET regulator in accordance with the Standards for VET Accredited Courses. These courses address skills requirements for industry, enterprises and the community where these are not covered in nationally endorsed Training Packages.

"ASQA (Australian Skills Quality Authority)" - The Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA) is the national regulator for Australia's vocational education and training sector. ASQA regulates courses and training providers to ensure nationally approved quality standards are met.

"Scope of Registration" - The training products for which a Registered Training Provider (RTO) is registered to issue AQF certification documentation. It allows the RTO to provide either training and/or assessment resulting in the issuance of AQF certification documentation.

"Training Packages" - Training packages are a set of nationally endorsed standards and qualifications for recognising and assessing an individual's skills in a specific industry. Training Packages are developed by Service Skills Organisations (SSO's) through an industry consultation process and endorsed through the Australian Industry and Skills Committee (AISC). All Training Packages contain three major components: qualification framework, units of competency and assessment guidelines.

"Victorian Purchasing Guide (VPG)" - Victorian Purchasing Guides contain nominal hour allocations for units of competency and maximum hour allocations for qualifications within training packages. They also contain sample training programs that have been developed for nationally endorsed training packages.

"Accredited Unit" - A unit that is approved as part of a formal accreditation process within an award course. This is also referred to as a Unit of Competency for VET Awards.

"Victorian Certificate of Applied Learning (VCAL)" - The Victorian Certificate of Applied Learning (VCAL) is a hands-on option for students in Years 11 and 12. The VCAL gives students practical work-related experience, literacy and numeracy skills as well as the opportunity to build personal skills that are important for life and work. Like the Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE), VCAL is an accredited secondary certificate.

"Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE)" - The Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE) is awarded to students who successfully complete their secondary education. It is internationally recognised, and provides pathways into employment, vocational education and training and higher education.

"Victorian Registration and Qualifications Authority (VRQA)" - The Victorian Registration and Qualifications Authority (VRQA) is the State statutory authority responsible for ensuring that employers of apprentices and trainees and providers of education and training (including course and qualification owners) meet quality standards, and that information is readily available to support informed choice in education and training.
