Section 6 - Procedures

Part A - Summary of Roles and Responsibilities

Roles	Responsibilities
Victoria Abroad Staff	Assess and approve/reject OS-HELP Loan applications.
Finance	Process student payment and notify the ATO.

Part B - Procedures

(12) Students are eligible to apply for OS-HELP when they have been accepted to study at an approved institution overseas via the following programs:

- a. Student Exchange;
- b. Study Abroad;
- c. Study Tour;
- d. Short programs.

(13) Students must also be eligible as per the OS-HELP Loan Policy and the Higher Education Support \(OS-HELP\) Guidelines 2023.

Application

(14) Students apply to Victoria University directly for the OS-HELP loan via MyVU.

Selection Process

(15) Selection of loan recipients is based on two criteria:

- a. Eligibility as per the Higher Education Support \(OS-HELP\) Guidelines 2023;
- b. Approval by Victoria University to undertake an overseas study program.

(16) VU Global staff assess the OS-HELP Loan applications and approve those that meet the criteria.

Disbursement of Loan Fund

(17) When approved, the loan documentation is forwarded to Finance, who process the payment to the student via EFT within 7 working days and record the transaction.

(18) Finance then notifies the ATO, and VU issues the student with a Commonwealth Assessment Notice (CAN).

Review Process

(19) Students who are not selected for a loan may seek a review by the Chief Student Officer and Registrar.
