

Research Misconduct Policy (disestablished)

Placeholder:

- (1) The University has disestablished its Research Misconduct Policy.
- (2) The University will develop a new Research Misconduct Policy/Procedure once the new Australian Code for Responsible Conduct of Research (Code) has been released.
- (3) Pending the release of the new Code and revised documentation, the University will apply Part B of the current Australian Code for the Responsible Conduct of Research (2018) when dealing with alleged breaches of the Code/Research Misconduct.
- (4) Queries about the progress of the new documentation are welcome and can be directed to the Manager, Policy and Compliance Services.
