Threatening or inappropriate behaviour requires a considered response that addresses the safety of the whole University community.

(12) In some circumstances, a person whose behaviour is considered to pose a health or safety risk to University staff, students or themselves, or disrupts the provision of University facilities, services or activities (pursuant to Clause 41 of the Governance, Academic and Student Affairs Statute 2013) may be refused enrolment or re-enrolment, or be suspended or excluded in accordance with the Regulations.

Reporting and Initial Action

(13) If an authorised officer becomes aware of information or witnesses an incident which would lead a reasonable person to consider that an applicant or student may be a high risk person, they should report the incident and reasons for concern to the Senior Coordinator, Safer Communities.

(14) If the Senior Coordinator, Safer Communities considers that a student or applicant is a high risk person (in accordance with clause 41 of the Governance, Academic and Student Affairs Statute 2013), and not able to be managed via other processes they can refer the matter to the Chair of the Safety and Triage Team (SAT) to convene a meeting of the SAT Team as soon as possible.

(15) In the interim and before a decision is made under this Procedure if the Senior Coordinator, Safer Communities receives reliable information that indicates that the applicant or student is likely to be considered a high risk person, they may consult with the Chair who may temporarily withdraw permission for the applicant or student to participate in a University activity, and/or use or enter all or particular University premises or facilities until a decision is made under this Procedure.

(16) The Vice-Chancellor has nominated the following members of staff (or their proxy) as members of the SAT:

(23) If it appears to the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, People and Organisation that an applicant or student may be a high risk person but there is insufficient evidence to warrant a decision to refuse to enrol, or the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, People and Organisation considers that the risks presented by the person may be managed, the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, People and Organisation may make a conditional enrolment decision. An example of a conditional enrolment decision within the meaning of the Regulation is a decision to allow a person to continue to attend campus if they consult regularly with a nominated health professional, or if a treating medical practitioner provides regular reports to the University.
