Part B - Procedures

Eligibility for Statements of Attainment

(7) A VU Statement of Attainment will be issued to vocational and further education students after any of the following events:

- a. Partial completion of a VU Award course and upon withdrawal.
- b. Successful completion of a VU non-Award course with accredited units; or,
- c. A nationally accredited skill; or,
- d. Unit/s of competency that relates to licensing or regulatory requirements. For example, Responsible Service of Alcohol, First Aid.
- e. Successful completion of a nationally accredited 'Course in'.

(8) A Statement of Attainment can only be issued when a student:

- a. Has partially completed an award course or fully completed a non-award course in which units of competency have been successfully completed; and,
- b. has no outstanding fees; and,
- c. has final results recorded on the student management system.

Producing a Statement of Attainment

(9) Statements of Attainment for VET non-award courses (Clause 7b-7e) will be issued on the day that training is completed or within 10 working days of the delivery area entering the final result in the Student Management System.

(10) Statements of Attainment for students withdrawing from an award course (Clause 7a) will be produced within 30 calendar days if all requirements have been met.

(11) Statements of Attainment both digital and hardcopy are free of charge for the 1st copy. Any subsequent copies will incur additional charges.

(12) All Statements of Attainment are produced on official VU stationery with unique security features to ensure that they cannot be reproduced or fraudulently misused.

(13) Statements of Attainment for VET Award courses must be produced in accordance with AQF requirements.

(14) The following words or statements must also be used to describe the course outcome:

- a. "These competencies form part of [Code and Title of Qualification(s) / Course(s)]" (if applicable);
- b. "These competencies were attained in completion of [code] course in [full title]" (if applicable);
- c. Title of the skill set and statement as described in the training package that indicates whether the skills set meets a licensing or regulatory requirement (if applicable);
- d. For a skill set identified by VU as meeting enterprise needs: additional brief information reflecting its identified purpose (if applicable);
- e. Where applicable, a statement that the program was taught in a language other than English - "These units/modules have been delivered and assessed in [Insert Language]".

Issuing a Statement of Attainment

(15) Statements of Attainment are issued by the Student Administration, Exam Results and Awards Department and VUHQ.

(16) A report containing details of all Statements of Attainment issued by VU can be extracted from the Student Management System for audit or quality assurance purposes. Details of the report include:

- a. Student name;
- b. Student number;
- c. Course code and title;
- d. Unit of study code(s) and title(s);
- e. Date issued.

(17) Details of all issued Statements of Attainment are recorded in the Student Management System.

Replacing a Statement of Attainment

(18) A Statement of Attainment will be replaced if the original has been damaged, destroyed, stolen, lost, or as a result of a name change due to marriage, divorce or deed poll.

(19) If the Statement of Attainment is to be replaced:

- a. due to damage, the original Statement of Attainment must be returned to the University; OR
- b. due to being destroyed, stolen or lost, the request must be supported by evidence detailing the theft or loss, for example a copy of the police or fire report. If an official report is not available a Statutory Declaration can be submitted as evidence; OR
- c. due to a name change, the original Statement of Attainment must be returned to the University. The request must be accompanied by an original, or a certified copy, of supporting evidence eg. Birth Certificate, Marriage Certificate, Notice of Dissolution of Marriage or Change of Name Certificate.

(20) The replacement Statement of Attainment will:

- a. include a statement at the bottom of the document that indicates that it is a replacement Statement of Attainment;
- b. have the date on which the replacement was issued; and,
- c. be produced and printed to the current University Statement of Attainment format.

(21) The cost of a replacement Statement of Attainment is available on the VU Additional Fees & Charges webpage.

Revoking a Statement of Attainment

(22) A Statement of Attainment must be formally revoked under the authority of the Chief TAFE Officer. This will be revoked following an investigation that the Statement of Attainment has been incorrectly issued to the recipient:

- a. for which that recipient was not qualified; or,
- b. because of fraud or dishonesty; or,
- c. as a result of an administrative error.

(23) A memo outlining the reason for the revocation is forwarded to Student Administration, Exam Results and Awards Department. The student is advised to return the Statement of Attainment. The details of the revocation are noted on the student record within the student system.
